Access current journals on JSTOR

The Current Scholarship Program (CSP) provides access to more than 200 high-quality current titles from 48 leading publishers, linking current journals with archival journals and ebooks on JSTOR's trusted platform. JSTOR is one of the most heavily used and relied-upon research and teaching platforms for academic libraries. It helps scholars to discover, use, and build upon a wide range of academic content, while ensuring that content's long-term preservation.

Why current journals on JSTOR?

The Current Scholarship Program was a direct response to the needs of the communities we serve. CSP supports our mission to advance fair and sustainable models that promote the widest possible disseminations of scholarly research and preserve publishing diversity. The program helps presses, scholarly associations, libraries, faculty, and students benefit from investment in a shared technology platform and related services.

Current Scholarship Program benefits

- ▶ Fuel discovery and expand usage: A wide range of journals and publishers in CSP have seen higher usage on JSTOR as compared to usage on their former platforms.
- ▶ Spend your way: Save money through flexible and discounted subscription options.
- ▶ Provide full run of journals: Link current journals in the program with your JSTOR archive collection holdings, providing full run access from volume 1, issue 1 through the current issue.
- ▶ Manage your collections with data: Enhance evidence-based collection management via JSTOR's COUNTER-compliant usage statistics for the full run of a title.
- ▶ Ensure perpetual access: All titles in the program are preserved in Portico, ITHAKA's digital preservation service, and postcancellation access is available.

To learn more, or to order or renew CSP titles, please contact participation@jstor.org or visit about.jstor.org/csp.

Subscription Options

The Current Scholarship Program offers flexible subscription options and reasonable, transparent pricing. Institutions may subscribe to single titles, discounted publisher packages, or the discounted Complete Current Scholarship Collection.

JSTOR provides current issue access back to the “born digital” date for each title, and access remains fixed back to this date with each additional subscription year. All current issues prices are set by participating publishers, and some publishers and titles offer pricing tiered according to JSTOR classifications. Orders can be placed directly with JSTOR or via your subscription agent. To aid your evaluation process, we provide a free holdings comparison service that compares your existing holdings to titles in CSP.

Subscribe To All Journals

Subscribe to all journals in the program for a savings off the list price. For institutions who participate in a large number of JSTOR Archive Collections, the Complete Current Scholarship Collection provides seamless access to the complete runs of journals on the JSTOR platform. A full run subscription option is also available for access from volume 1, issue 1 to present for all titles.

Comprises all content—216 titles from 48 publishers—for the 2016 subscription year. †

Includes all publisher package discounts, for a total average savings of 9% off list price. For direct orders, JSTOR will apply an additional 3% savings.

Subscribe To Single Titles and Discounted Publisher Packages

Publisher Packages: Many of the publishers in CSP offer discounted packages to all of their journals. Available in electronic format, plus P+E or mixed format subscription for some publisher packages.

Single Title—Current: A subscription to a journal's current issues. This option provides access only to the most recent issues of a single title. Available in electronic format, plus P+E for some titles.

Single Title—Full Run: A subscription to a journal's current and archival issues. This option provides access to the complete run of a single title, from volume 1, issue 1 through the current issue. Please note that pricing in the catalog is for electronic-only full runs.

To order, contact participation@jstor.org.
